ARTICLE 4 ELECTIONS AND TERMS OF OFFICE:

- A) Powers. All corporate powers will be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors purpose is to:
- 1) Support members and advance and promote the mission of the Association.
 - 2) Define the major projects to be undertaken each year and be fiscally responsible as good stewards and fiduciaries with corporate assets.
 - 3) Work collaboratively to complete all major projects within budget.
- B) Nominations and Elections. The Current Chair shall, with the approval of the Board, recommend Voting Members for Board positions no later than the September Board of Directors meeting. Other nominees may be filed with the Chair or Secretary by written petition of at least 10 Voting Members. No further nominations will be accepted after the October board meeting. Each nominee will be interviewed for the position, and upon their agreement to run, candidates will be published on the Association website. The selected slate of nominees will be presented at the Annual Members Business meeting in December and elected by written ballot by a majority vote. New Directors will assume office on the following January first.
- C) The Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall consist of eligible members of HPNA under Article 3.
- 1) Nominees are required to have lived in the neighborhood for a minimum of 5 years and be eligible Voting Members.
 - 2) Any nominee with a potential Conflict of Interest as defined in Article 8 (D) must fully disclose the possible conflict. The Board of Directors will decide if the nominee is cleared to run or may run with restrictions.
 - 3) Anyone serving on the Board of Directors is charged with knowledge of the bylaws and agrees to uphold them.
- D) Standard of Care. Each Board Member must exercise corporate powers and perform corporate duties loyally, in good faith, in a manner such Board Member believes to be in the best interest of the HPNA and its Members, and with reasonable care using the ordinary prudence that a person in a similar position would use under comparable circumstances.
- 1) Board Members are not specifically bound to act according to the desires of most members attending a particular meeting. Each Board Member may be held accountable and subject to disciplinary action by the corporation for failure to meet the necessary standard of care towards the corporation.
 - 2) The Board will strictly adhere to open, democratic processes in all manners of its operations and activities.

Highland Park Neighborhood Association Inc

ARTICLE 8 GENERAL PROVISIONS:

- A) Fees and Compensation. Board or committeemembers may not receive compensation for their services but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses approved by the Board if within budget.

- B) Expenditures.
 - 1) The Chairperson or Treasurer will expend no monies in excess of $300.00 without a majority vote in the affirmative by the board. Additional funds may be requested from the board or membership for any special project provided it is voted upon and approved by the Board.

 - 2) The board may at any time, by majority vote, suspend permission, for a defined period of time, of all board members to expend money except for expenses receiving prior majority approval from the board.

- C) Indemnification. The Corporation will not indemnify its Officers, Directors, Board Members, Committee Chairs/Members, or Other Agents in connection with any proceeding arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was an Officer, Director, Board Member, Committee Chair/Member, or Other Agents of the corporation. Irrespective of the foregoing, the corporation may not be required to indemnify any Officer, Director, Board Member, Committee Chair/Member, or Other Agents in connection with any proceeding (or part thereof) initiated by the Officers, Directors, Board Member, Committee Chair/Member, or Other Agents themselves unless such indemnification is expressly required by law; or the proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors.

- D) Conflicts of Interest. The following conflict of interest policy is intended to supplement, but not replace, any applicable state and federal laws governing conflict of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable corporations and is not intended as an exclusive statement of responsibilities.
 - 1) All Officers, Board Members, or Committee members have a duty to disclose the existence of any actual or potential conflict of interest, whether personal or financial in nature, and to disclose all relevant material facts to the Directors to enable them to consider whether a conflict exists and whether the proposed transaction or arrangement is in the best interests of the Corporation.

 - 2) Upon disclosure of an actual or potential Conflict-In Interest, and after the interested person has had a full opportunity to disclose the relevant facts, the interested person must leave the meeting and the remaining Board members will decide if a Conflict-In-interest exists. Whenever the Board determines that a director or officer has an actual or potential financial or personal interest in any matter coming before the Board of Directors, the Board must ensure the following:
 - (a) The financial or personal interest of such Officer, Director, Board Member, or Committee Member is fully disclosed with all relevant material facts to the Board of Directors.

Highland Park Neighborhood Association Inc
By-Laws

- (b) No interested Officer, Director, Board Member or Committee Member, may vote or lobby on the matter or be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at the meeting of the Board of Directors at which such matter is voted upon.
 - (c) Any transaction involving the Officers, Directors, Board Members, or Committee Members financial or personal interest must be duly approved by disinterested Directors in the best interest of the corporation.
 - (d) Payment must be reasonable and must not exceed fair market value; and
 - (e) The minutes of meetings at which such votes are taken must include a record of such disclosures, abstention, and rationale for approval.
- E) Amendments. The Voting Members may amend or adopt new bylaws recommended by the Board of Directors or repeal current bylaws by a majority vote. Nothing in the new bylaws or amended bylaws may contradict any terms of the certificate of incorporation.
- F) Insurance. The Association may purchase (1) or more insurance policies to indemnify the Association and any member or person eligible to be indemnified.
- G) Dissolution. The nonprofit may be dissolved only with authorization of a majority vote of the Voting Members. Upon dissolution of the nonprofit, assets will be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code or will be distributed to the federal government or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.
- H) Governing Law. The bylaws will be governed, construed, and interpreted by, though, and under the laws of New York. Nothing in the bylaws may be contrary to law or certificate of incorporation.
- I) Corporate Seal. The Board of Directors may adopt a corporate seal, which may be altered from time to time with majority Board approval. The seal may be used by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed or reproduced in any other manner.
